

Memo No. ৩৭.০১.০০০০.০৭২.১৪.০২১.২২.১৫৪ dated 02/01/2020

Date: 12 January 2020

Project: “Carbon sequestration potential of tropical forests in Bangladesh: A case study in Sitapahar reserve forest” funded by the Research cell of the University of Chittagong, Bangladesh

Advertisement for Research Assistant

For the project mentioned above, a research assistant is required to support the project's research activities for one year (12 Months). Interested candidates are encouraged to apply for Research Assistant (RA) by fulfilling the following terms and conditions:

1. The applicant must be a current research (MS) student of any University in Bangladesh.
2. If the applicant is a service holder must be on study leave, which is not less than the project duration.
3. The applicant must be capable of writing, drafting, and editing necessary documents in English.
4. The applicant must be capable of collection, organization, and management of data, and working with statistical software.

Remuneration Package:

1. The applicant will get a monthly salary BDT. 10,000/- each month (including tax) for 12 months.
2. The applicant will be reimbursed for expenditures incurred for project completion, such as conveyance allowances (if it is used for project purposes), stationery, and others.

Interested applicants are invited to apply to the undersigned person for the post of Research Assistant (RA) with a complete CV and all supporting documents mentioned in terms and conditions on or before January 20, 2021.

Dr. Tarit Kumar Baul
Principal Investigator &
Associate Professor
Institute of Forestry and Environmental Sciences
University of Chittagong, Bangladesh
E-mail: tarit.ifes@cu.ac.bd; Mobile: +88-01720-865182